Finally Restored To Health
By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bellevue, Ohio.—"I was in a terrible state before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back ached until I thought it would break, I had pains all over me, nervous feelings and periodic troubles. I was very weak and run down and was losing hope of ever being well and strong. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I improved rapidly and today am a well woman. I cannot tell you how happy I feel and I cannot say too much for your Compound. Would not be without it in the house if it cost three times the amount."—Mrs. CHAS. CHAPMAN, R. F. D. No. 7, Bellevue, Ohio.

PASS HOME RULE MEASURE

Vote in House of Commons Shows 78 Majority

London, May 26.—By a vote of 351 to 274, a majority of 77, the House of Commons yesterday afternoon read a third time the Irish home rule bill and passed the hardfought measure on to the House of Lords, where another effort will be made by means of an amending bill, to bring the act into a shape which will secure it the good will of all classes of Irishmen. The end of the struggle came quite suddenly, the unionists refusing to debate the bill without further information as to the government's intentions in regard to the proposed amending measure.

Premier Asquith lifted a corner of the veil, but though Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, admitted that the premier's words were a conciliatory as usual, he hastened to add that Mr. Asquith had not told them anything. To discuss the third reading under the circumstances would, he said, be futile and ridiculous. He added:

"Let the curtain ring down on this contemptible farce. It is only the end of an act and not of the play. The government can carry the bill through Parliament, but the concluding act of the drama will be in the country where an appeal to the people will not end in a farce." Mr. Law then remarked that when the government was unable to obtain a seat in Parliament for a member of the cabinet, meaning Mr. Masterman, Chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster, an appeal to the country evidently was not far off.

After a brief speech by Mr. Asquith in which he denied the government against the charge of ignoring the right of the minority and redressing the balance of power between the parties by means of the Parliament act, he explained that he was introducing an amending bill, not because he was anxious for peace. The vote was then taken, and the announcement of the figures showing a majority of 77 for the bill brought out a great demonstration by the nationalists and the liberals. The division was strictly on party lines. The followers of William O'Brien abstained from voting. Mr. O'Brien expressing the view that "the premier's action was not straight dealing either with England or Ireland."

The home rule bill was subsequently sent up to the House of Lords, a group of jubilant nationalists escorting the official bearer of the bill and singing "God Save Ireland." The House of Lords afterward formally read the bill a first time. The real fight on the measure in that chamber will begin in the middle of June, after the Whitsuntide holiday.

DETECTIVE WOOD CURIOUS

Head of Boston Agency Studies Vouchers in Auditor's Office

Montpelier, May 21.—It was reported today at the state house that J. R. Wood of the Wood-Morgan Detective agency of Boston is making an examination of the vouchers in the state auditor's office insofar as they relate to detectives employed by the department of justice, which is at present time under criticism because of the increased cost of detective service.

It is also said that Mr. Wood is making the examination in view of the forthcoming statement from the office of Attorney General H. E. Brown, concerning the expenditure of over $24,000 for detectives during the past nine months. Every scrap of paper in the auditor's office relating to detective work, is being gone over.

The Wood-Morgan agency received over $24,000 of the $34,000.

Forest of Stone in Australia.
In Albany, in Australia, is to be seen a stone forest—in other words, petrified trees. The trees are of a gray stone. It is suggested as an explanation of the strange phenomenon that in the depths of past ages the forest was in full vegetation and then through some upheaval of the earth it was buried in sand. Little by little water acting on the sand penetrated the branches and solidified. The wood gradually disappeared under the layer of stone and in time took its form. Then in succeeding years the winds again carried away the sand and the forest appeared anew, but of stone.—London Globe.

Child Cross? Feverish? Sick? A cross, peevish, listless child with coated tongue, pale, doesn't sleep; eats sometimes very little, then again, ravenously; stomach sour; breath fetid; pains in stomach, with diarrhea; grinds teeth while asleep, and starts up with terror—all suggest a worm killer—something that expels worms, and almost every child has them. Kickapoo Worm Killer is needed. Get a box today. Start at once. You won't have to coax, as Kickapoo Worm Killer is a candy confection. Expels the worms, the cause of your child's trouble. 25c. at your druggists.
